President of U. C. Stands on Choice of Admiral for the Speaker at Charter Day Exercises Despite Protest

Senate Rejects by Vote of 33 to 6 Resolution by the San Francisco Group Attacking U. S. Naval Officer

SACRAMENTO, March 13 (By International News Service).—The Senate today, after an acrimonious debate, in which were hurled charges of disloyalty by both sides, voted down the resolution protesting against inviting Admiral Sims to speak at the Berkeley Charter Day exercises. The vote on the resolution was 33 against and 6 for the protest. Only six members, all of San Francisco, were opposed to the speaking of Admiral Sims. These six were Senators Murphy, McDonald, Canepa, Crowley, Gray and Godsil.

Senator T. C. West, from Alameda, led the fight against the resolution. The Assembly adjourned until Monday without considering the resolution.

"The Charter Day speaker is selected by the president of the University. I take responsibility for the choice of the distinguished American who honors us this year. If any one has any sensible objection to my choice he may make them to me."

This was the answer made today by Dr. David P. Barrows, president of the University of California, to the resolution introduced in the State Legislature yesterday, mandating that Rear-Admiral William S. Sims, U. S. N., retired, be prevented from delivering the Charter Day address at the university because of his alleged pro-British sympathies.

By a vote of 33 to 6, the resolution was defeated today in the Senate.

Meanwhile, members of the Alameda county delegation to the Legislature, and local high naval officials, today joined in voicing opposition to the resolution, which called upon the university authorities to withdraw its invitation that Admiral Sims speak at the annual university exercises on May 24.

The resolution was introduced late yesterday in the assembly by Assemblymen Morrison and Hornblower of San Francisco, and in the upper house by Senator Daniel C. Murphy.

Its introduction followed a visit to Sacramento of a delegation of San Franciscoans headed by Supervisors Richard J. Welch and Andrew J. Gallagher, who were joined there by representatives of various organizations throughout the state. A conference was then held with the San Francisco legislative group and with Assemblyman Otto Emms of Los Angeles. Those at the conference included Joseph Scott, Los Angeles attorney; R. D. Daley of Eureka; and Eneas Kane, John Donohue and William Boyle of San Francisco.

Before taking the resolution to the capitol, Supervisor Gallagher of San Francisco, head of the delegation, drafted it, addressed the members of the San Francisco delegation at a luncheon at the Travelers Hotel in Sacramento.

Statements made by Gallagher and others attacking the Americanism of Admiral Sims were emphatically opposed today by Rear-Admiral Halsey.

"Admiral Sims was one of the greatest officers of the American navy," said Halsey, "and he has no more to do with the navy than I have with the coal mine." He has the respect of the majority of naval officers, and I do not understand such opposition.

"In my opinion there is no better American than Admiral Sims, and there has been no better officer in the past than Admiral Sims."

Gallagher personally canvassed the various members of the legislature for signatures to the resolution. Approximately twenty members of both houses signed the ROSENSHINE REVEALED BY MORE.

Gallagher "hit a snag" when he tried to persuade Assemblyman Albert Rosenhouse of San Francisco to sign the resolution, and a fiery dispute developed between the two men, which ended by Rosenhouse finally refusing to sign. Rosenhouse said: "The resolution is based on a story in which I do not believe, since it is founded on a spirit of religious intolerance." This charge was hotly denied by Gallagher who said: "Admiral Sims has been severely reprimanded by President Taft." To this Rosenhouse replied, "Yes, and he was highly praised by President Wilson."

Unanimous opposition to the resolution was voiced today by the members of the Alameda county delegation in both houses.

$61,000 BAGGED IN S. F. HOLDUP

Alamedan, Chain Store Messenger, Beaten and Robbed in Daylight Crime

SAN FRANCISCO, March 15.—The police of the bay region are searching for the two bandits who late yesterday in the presence of scores of pedestrians and a patrolman, held up Warren Clintman, messenger for the General Cigar company, just as he left the company's office at 601 Third street, and robbed him of cash and checks totaling $61,000.

When the messenger resisted, one of the bandits beat him over the head with a revolver until he fell to the street in a semi-conscious condition.

Leaping into a waiting automobile the highwaymen speeded south on Third street, and had disappeared before pursuit was taken up. Witnesses were unable to secure the license number of the car. The loot consisted of $1000 cash, $20,000 in negotiable securities, and a $40,000 draft on which payment has been stopped.

Police believe the robbery was the result of careful planning. Clintman, who is 26 years old and the son of Albert N. Clintman, deputy auditor of Alameda, was wearing a cash and checks in his pocket at 2:45 o'clock yesterday afternoon preparatory to boarding a Third street car. As he stepped out of the office onto Third street he was met by two young men, each of whom had pistols.

The bandits ordered him to throw up his hands and when he did not comply one struck him several times on the head with his pistol. The other snatched the satchel containing the money, and the two men leaped into the automobile and speeded away.

Clintman resides at 1193 Park street, Alameda.

DANSEUSE IN MILLION SUIT IS INDICTED

Evan Fontaine, Who Accused Cornelius V. Whitney in Paternity Case, Charged With Perjury by N.Y. Jury

Mother Made Joint Defendant and Both Face Arrest on Bench Warrant; Pair Have Debts in Berkeley

Evan Burrows Fontaine, Oriental dancer, and her mother, Mrs. Florence E. Fontaine, who recently left Berkeley, a string of debts and an equal number of creditors headed by Mrs. Edwin Carlise Williams, social leader of the community, were indicted in Nyack, N. Y., today on charges of perjury growing out of the dancer's $1,000,000 breach of promise suit against Cornelius Vanderbilt Whitney, according to word reaching here.

The dancer and her mother, now reported to be in New York, will be arrested on a bench warrant in the event they do not surrender.

GROSS FRAUD CHARGED IN ANNUAL SUIT In Nyack recently Supreme Justice Thompson sustained the charge of fraud made by young Whitney, vacated the annulment of the dancer's marriage to Sterling Adair of Waco, Texas, and instructed the district attorney to take all records of the case before the grand jury.

Today's indictment returned by that body is the result.

"A gross fraud has been perpetrated on the court," said the judge at the time he gave his instructions to the district attorney, "and rank perjury has been committed by both the plaintiff and her mother. Miss Fontaine obtained the annulment on grounds that she had lived with her husband for three hours, while records show that they lived together for a year after their marriage."

DANCER CALLED SON CORNELIUS WHITNEY A prominent position in Miss Fontaine's suit against Whitney was occupied by the dancer's infant son. She announced that she would name him Cornelius Whitney.

Miss Fontaine, with her mother, arrived in Berkeley on October 1 and resided in the city for about thirty days, when they were ejected from a house they had rented from Mrs. Williams. After they left the city a string of debts was discovered.

Whitney recently was married in Paris to Marie Norton, daughter of a prominent New York family.

NINE BURN TO DEATH IN HOSPITAL

Twenty-four Aged Patients Trapped in Almshouse by Flames Following Blast—Only Fifteen Escape Blaze

Rescue Worker Carries Three to Safety and Loses Life When He Defies Warnings and Re-enters the Building

BUFFALO, N. Y., March 15.—(By International News Service).—Nine persons, seven of them women, lost their lives in an explosion and fire that swept through the Allegheny county almshouse at Angelica early today. The women were all aged and helplessly bedridden. One of the men who perished was Charles Sanborn, an attendant. Five minutes before he lost his life he had succeeded in saving three inmates.

The explosion took place in the boiler room and the fire spread rapidly through the institution. When the explosion occurred attendants rushed to the sleeping quarters and carried out many inmates, but fast spreading flames soon cut their entrance off. Sanborn, despite constant warnings, made his way into the sleeping quarters for a third time, after bringing out three women. That was the last seen of him. His charred body was found later.

The other man killed was still unidentified at 10 a. m.

Authorities said it would be impossible to get the names of the women until a careful checkup of all the inmates is made.

The inmates included twenty-four women, nearly all of them of advanced age, and many of them very feeble, and twenty-nine men, most of them feeble.

The charred bodies of the six bedridden victims were recovered. The seventh woman to die lost her life when she succeeded in getting out of her bed, going to a window on the second floor and jumping to the ground before any attempt could be made to rescue her.

'MURDER AX' TO FIGURE IN TRIAL

Seek to Identify the Weapon With Which Allen Is Accused of Killing.

An attempt to identify the "murder ax" which the prosecution charges was used by Harry Allen in the murder of Walter Dowdy, Palo Alto auto dealer, as the property of Dowdy, was made by the prosecution today when O. W. Johnson, hardware dealer of Palo Alto, was called to the stand.

Johnson was shown the ax, which had been previously identified by Frank Knack as having been carried in Dowdy's automobile, and testified that it was of the brand sold at the Johnson store, one of which had been sold to Dowdy several months prior to the murder.

The witness described certain markings on the ax, which he said were placed on all such articles upon their arrival at the store from the factory.

RULED OUT EVIDENCE IS AID TO DEFENSE. The defense scored at yesterday afternoon's hearing, Attorney Peter Crosby succeeding in having ruled out certain evidence offered by the prosecution and also in having temporarily halted the introduction of other evidence from the same source.

The first victory came when A. T. Nelson, owner of a Palo Alto hardware store, identified a certified check for $450 as a check which he had given Dowdy on the morning that he and Allen started on their fatal trip. Deputy District Attorney Weston Higgins, who in the illness of District Attorney Ezra Decoto, is conducting the prosecution, attempted to question Nelson as to the nature of the business transaction which led up to the delivery of the check to Dowdy.

DOWDY WAS TO HAVE IDENTIFIED MONEY. In a statement to the jury Higgins maintained that he desired to show that Nelson and Dowdy were engaged in the purchase of an automobile. Nelson, desiring a certain make of machine, he stated that Allen knowing this, influenced Dowdy to go to Nelson to secure the make of car desired, on which he told Dowdy he had paid a first deposit. Dowdy was to have furnished the balance of the money, according to Higgins, and this sum

STUDENT JAILED AS BOOTLEGGER

Abc Goldfarb, Oakland, Gets 30 Days in Cell for Sale of Liquor

BERKELEY, March 15.—Abc Goldfarb, of Oakland, a senior student at the University of California, was sentenced to 30 days in the county jail today by Police Judge Robert Edgar, following his arrest at his boarding house, 2617 Haste street, last night, on a charge of selling liquor. Frank Loyd, also a senior university student, and from Oakland, who was arrested with Goldfarb, was released and the case against him dismissed.

In court today, the arresting officers presented a so-called "blue list," which is said to contain the names of university students, who were "eligible" to purchase liquor from Goldfarb.

Goldfarb and Loyd were arrested when Sergeant Oscar Putzker led Patrolmen Clarence Taylor and George Brerton in a raid on his rooms in the college rooming house, after the latter two officers purchased a pint of gin.

From the witness stand in court today Goldfarb exonerated Loyd from all blame, and said that he had nothing to do with his liquor transactions. He admitted selling liquor, but said that he did not do it for profit, but merely for the convenience of students.

BERLIN FRAMING REPARATIONS Offer to Be Submitted to France if U. S. or Other Neutrals Pledge Services

RECKLINGHAUSEN, March 15.—(By the United Press).—French sentries killed three Germans here today when the latter attempted to enter a railroad roundhouse.

HANOVER, March 15.—(By the United Press).—"If the French and Belgians insist upon staying in the Ruhr, then we must take arms in our hands and smite them," Field Marshal Von Hindenburg declared today in a speech while an audience of 5000 cheered. "We don't want to start a war, but it must be remembered the best of us cannot continue to live in peace when bad neighbors don't wish it."

By LUTHER A. HUSTON, International News Service Staff Correspondent.

LONDON, March 15.—Although Premier A. Bonar Law rejected the German proposal for British intervention in the Ruhr, brought to London by a member of the British parliament, the matter is not ended. Deliberations upon the advisability of mediation are still in progress this afternoon.

The German government is understood to have drawn up a new reparations offer, lacking only some of the details which will be made to France if Great Britain, the United States or a strong group of neutrals pledge their services to mediate.

While no formal proposals have come from Germany for settlement of the Ruhr and reparations problems, the way is still open for any offer Germany may put forward, the premier stated in the House of Commons this afternoon.

Lord Curzon today informed the German ambassador the British cabinet does not think the present a fitting time to intervene, but that the situation is being watched carefully and that Britain will move at the first opportunity.

That if France and Germany continue to show unwillingness to negotiate, Great Britain will make a peace move by the first of April.

By CARL D. GROOT, United Press Staff Correspondent.

BERLIN, March 15.—Great Britain has responded to Germany's recent secret "peace feelers," the United Press was advised today.

The British government suggested Germany make a new and clearer reparations offer to the extent on her own initiative or that such an offer be made to the extent and to the United States.

INDUSTRIALISTS URGE BERLIN TO MAKE OFFER. PARIS, March 15.—(By the Associated Press).—An active debate appears to be going on between the manufacturing interests in Westphalia and the Berlin government as to whether proposals should be made immediately for settlement negotiations. The general line of the industrial argument, according to the French authority, is that those who are resisting must suffer permanent economic results and possibly total disaster.

By T. M. CHURCH, International News Service Staff Correspondent.

LONDON, March 15.—There is no possible chance of Russia joining in helping Germany to drive the French out of the Ruhr alley, according to the opinion expressed today by Lieutenant Commander J. M. Kenworthy, M. P., who has just returned from a seven weeks' tour of Russia.

"Russia knows Germany is the only friend she has, but she is not going to fight Germany's battles for her," Kenworthy told International News Service. "Russians regard the Ruhr as a capitalistic venture."

HUGHES DENIES AMERICA ASKED TO INTERVENE. WASHINGTON, March 15 (By United Press).—Secretary of State Hughes issued a statement today declaring without foundation the report that Great Britain had approached the United States on intervention in the Ruhr situation and that no reply had been received. The text of the statement follows:

The statement in the press to the effect that this government has not replied to a proposal or suggestion of the British government in the matter of dealing between France and Germany are entirely without foundation. The statement is a complete fabrication. No proposal or suggestion whatever to this government for mediation or intervention of any sort with respect to the Ruhr situation.

BARRROWS DEFIES ATTACK ON SIMS AS U. C. SPEAKER

from Oakland, and speaker pro tempore of the assembly, declared that "the legislature is not the place for the introduction of this sort of a resolution, which seeks to inject the quarrels of Europe where they do not belong."

Assemblyman E. H. Christman of Hayward said: "I am strongly opposed to this resolution. I cannot see that Admiral Sims lacks fitness to address the students of the university, simply because he is said to be pro-British."

Assemblyman Henry Carter of Los Angeles said that Admiral Sims has the right of free speech, and that he should be respected as an American who has rendered great service to this country.

Senator Arthur H. Breed, of Piedmont, president pro tempore of the Senate, said: "This resolution can only be described as being very ill advised. People should know that the president of the university is charged with the duty of selecting a speaker for the Charley Day exercises, and on this occasion he has so selected Admiral Sims. It may not be known that Admiral Sims is not to make a political speech, and that his subject bears the entirely non-political title of 'What Constitutes Real Success in Life.'"

Another strong opponent of the resolution was Senator T. C. West of Alameda, who said: "I am acquainted with the Irish question from close personal observation, and I know that whatever Admiral Sims said in regard to the disability of the Irish in Ireland is correct."

Assemblyman Harry T. Morrison of San Francisco, speaking for the resolution, said: "Sims' record is of such that he ought to be permitted to address the students of our State University. He has been down on several occasions to be patriotic and pro-British."

Assemblyman Hornblower of San Francisco said: "The University of California is an American institution based on American ideals. To admit a man of Sims' record to address it is out of the question. I did not the regents find another man than Sims to speak on this occasion?"

Teuton Robbers Rose as Titans, France Charges

PARIS, March 15.—(By The Associated Press.)—German nationalists, wearing French uniforms and posing as French officials, are declared in French official advices from the Ruhr to have been committing robberies and outrages with their own countenance as the victims. Their purpose, as interpreted here, is to excite the public against the troops of occupation and stiffen the German resistance.

The French authorities are investigating thoroughly into the extent of this and other new features of opposition to the Franco-Belgian regime in the Ruhr.

D'ANNUNZIO TO LIVE IN VILLA OF EX-KAISER

ROME, March 15.—Gabriele d'Annunzio has decided to transfer his residence to suburban Rome. The government has leased to him the beautiful Villa Tuscolana at Frascati, 12 miles southeast of Rome, which was bought before the World War by the German banker Mendelssohn and presented to Emperor William, who transformed it into a home for German writers. The villa was confiscated by the Italian government during the war and has been retained by it as a portion of Germany's reparations debt.

Premier Mussolini granted the request of D'Annunzio to take over the villa. The poet desires to be in Rome in order to direct a newspaper which he is shortly to publish.

The villa, prior to its purchase by the German banker, belonged to Lucien Bonaparte, a brother to Napoleon I, and afterwards became the property of King Victor Emmanuel II.

DEFENSE SCORES POINT IN TRIAL OF HARRY ALLEN

Attempt Made to Identify Ax
With Which Dowdy Was Believed Killed.

was to have been taken by him on the trip.

Objections to the question served to rule out any testimony as to the nature of the transaction and Nelson was excused from the stand with Higgins announcing that he would produce authorities sustaining his right to put the questions to the witness. The point will be taken up later.

The defense succeeded in entirely ruling out the testimony of Hugo Helin, realty dealer of Palo Alto, who testified that he called at the garage on the morning in question to see Dowdy. He said he was met by Allen and told that Dowdy had gone to a bank near by. After waiting for a time Dowdy appeared and he and Dowdy talked together. The prosecution attempted to introduce this testimony in evidence, but the witness was unable to state whether or not Allen was standing close enough to hear what was said. Considerable time was spent in questions along the line of the loudness of the conversation, but on the repeated declaration of the witness that he could not state whether or not Allen could and did hear what was said the conversation was barred as evidence.

DECLARES DEFENDANT
TALKED DISCONNECTEDLY.

J. C. Vincent, garage owner, at whose place of business Dowdy maintained his automobile salesroom, testified that he talked to Allen on the morning in question and that the defendant talked disconnectedly. On cross-examination Vincent testified that his conversation with Allen was as to where he, Vincent, could secure a Christmas tree and that the defendant's reply had been "Up at the Duffield mill."

Under cross-examination Vincent also testified that when he first saw Allen he had remarked to the defendant that it had been a long time since the two had met.

"I said to him 'What are you doing here? I hear there is a warrant out for you. You better keep under cover.'"

"You wished him to go and hide and thus defeat the law?" asked Attorney Crosby.

"Yes," replied the witness.

Science Provides New Faith Basis, Says Dean

BERKELEY, March 15.—Modern science has much to give in the support of religious faith, Dr. S. M. Mathews, dean of the Divinity school of the University of Chicago, told ministers assembled today at the closing session of the third interdenominational pastoral conference held at the First Congregational church.

Dr. Mathews made a plea for the recognition of scientific findings in the religion of today. He said in part: "Today there is the same long standing conflict between views of nature which have been proved by the church and new facts and explanations which science has provided. The truth is no doubt as to what the outcome will be. Truth always fits into truth. Theology no longer thinks of the earth as flat and denies that it circles around the sun. Science can make contributions to our religious thinking today just as truly as in the past. As our knowledge of the universe extends, so can our faith extend. Unless we can believe in a God coextensive with theology, there will be some place where we must believe God does not exist."

USE SCIENCE, IS PLEA.
"Few religious teachers have seriously undertaken to utilize the result of recent science. Many of them unfortunately have opposed scientific conclusions on the basis of theology. Both attitudes are unfortunate, for modern science has much to give in the support of our religious faith. Our modern scientific thought is giving us a new basis for our faith in the existence of an infinite God—the very God revealed to us by Jesus Christ. It is giving us new material for our theology."

The second main feature at this morning's session was Dr. Richard La Rue Swain from Bridgeport, Conn., who spoke on the subject of "Does God Have a Body and Could He Become a Man?" Dr. Swain attacked the modern conception of a Trinity of God. In this respect he said: "The description of the Trinity is only a description of process of becoming personal. Trinity and personality therefore, may be considered as phenomena. The Trinity or personal God became perfectly incarnate in the man Jesus so that he gave the very God and the very man. Every man is all God except the invisible man's soul."

Other speakers this morning included Dr. Oswald W. S. McCall, pastor of the First Congregational church of Berkeley while this afternoon Dr. O. D. Foster spoke on training for the ministry. Following Dr. Swain's address there was the usual half hour of discussion. Rev. Oswald W. S. McCall spoke on "The Church in the Heart of God." After the lunch hour Dean Shailer Mathews spoke on "God in the Universe," and Dr.

STATE RAILROAD
BOARD DEFEATED

SAN FRANCISCO, March 15.—The efforts of the Railroad Commission to prevent the raising of rates on freight in California between Oakland, San Francisco, Sacramento, Stockton, Marysville and points north of Red Bluff have come to naught, according to an announcement today. The Interstate Commerce Commission has ruled that the Railroad Commission has denied the application for a rehearing brought in the matter of the Portland Traffic and Transportation Association and other Oregon interests against the Southern Pacific company.

The effect of the order will be to increase rates between the cities above-mentioned between 15 and 20 per cent. The Interstate Commerce Commission, in its opinion, had taken the position that the lower rates, within the state of California, to the contested jobbing territory, create discrimination against interstate commerce and therefore are unlawful. The rates prescribed by the Interstate Commerce Commission on the mileage basis are those which were ordered into effect in 1911, with wartime changes added. The California commission has gone on record as saying that the new rates appear excessive and unreasonable when applied within the state of California.

The California commission established reduced rates from Oakland, San Francisco and the bay region to all points north of Sacramento.

In reaching our conclusion in that proceeding, said the commission today, "we were particular in prescribing rates which, in our opinion, would not create a situation calling for protest from the Oregon shippers. Our adjustment, however, did not meet with the approval of the Federal court. We lished by the Interstate Commerce Commission are higher than are justified within the state of California and that the commission would have created a better situation had they reduced the rates from Portland to remove the alleged discrimination instead of increasing them from the California cities. It might be added that the rates established by the California commission were not upheld by the Southern Pacific and the decision of the commission was finally sustained in the Federal court. The Interstate Commerce Commission in many recent decisions has by its order, nullified rates established by state commissions and this is especially true where complete schedule of class rates, or special commodity rates involving large movements, were in controversy."

Porto Rico Will Be Kept Dry, Is Ruling

WASHINGTON, March 15.—Despite the fact that the Philippines are "wide open" as far as liquor is concerned, Porto Rico will remain as "dry" as continental United States under a ruling made by legal authorities of the war department and concurred in by the attorney general. It was learned officially today. Appeals to the United States Supreme Court are expected.

Practical prohibition has existed in Porto Rico since the Philippines came into effect, but thirty Porto Ricans have contended the island is legally exempt from the prohibition laws and have pointed to the situation in the Philippines as a example of "haphazard discrimination."

Chile Ministers All Give Up Posts Last Night

SANTIAGO, CHILE, March 15.—The Chilean cabinet resigned last night.

The Chilean senate on March 7 refused a vote of confidence to the ministry of Francisco Garcia Gana, but the Chamber of Deputies sustained the resolution. The resignation of the cabinet was then held in abeyance by President Alessandri, who insisted that only about half of the senators were present at the session which refused to vote. The ministry was formed on January 10.

HARBORD, HERO OF BELLERU WOOD, TO BE CITY GUEST

Former Major-General, Now
Radio Corporation Head,
Touring West.

Major General James G. Harbord, U. S. A., retired, hero of Belleau Wood and General Pershing's chief of staff during the war, will arrive in this city tomorrow afternoon.

General Harbord, who recently resigned from the service to become president of the Radio Corporation of America, is in the West on a tour of inspection of the Pacific division of the corporation.

He will be welcomed officially at Sixteenth street station by a committee comprising Mayor John L. Davis, Harrison S. Robinson, president of the Chamber of Commerce, District Attorney Ezra Decoto, Major John U. Calkins and Joseph R. Knowland.

General Harbord will make a brief tour of this city before going to San Francisco, where he will make his headquarters during the inspection.

Arrangements have been completed for a formal welcome by a San Francisco reception committee, including Mayor and Mrs. James Rolph Jr., General and Mrs. Hunter Liggett, General and Mrs. George Barnett, Brigadier General Thorneley Mulhally, Colonel and Mrs. Kenyon A. Joyce, Major and Mrs. U. S. Grant III and Arthur A. Isbell, Pacific Coast superintendent of the Radio Corporation.

BANQUET IN HONOR.
On Tuesday night, General Harbord will be the guest of honor at a banquet in the Palace hotel under the auspices of the Association of the Army of the United States. At this affair General Harbord has accepted an invitation to describe the battle of Belleau Wood, where he commanded a division.

The visitor is one of the few men who have risen from the rank of private to lieutenant general, the rank he held in France. He was born on a farm in Bloomington in 1866 and started life as a Kansas school teacher after being graduated from the State Agricultural College in 1888. He enlisted in 1889, was made second lieutenant in 1891 and a major in 1898.

In 1903 he was elevated to the rank of colonel and was assistant chief of the Philippine constabulary. He was stationed at the Presidio at the outbreak of the world war and at the request of General Pershing was made chief of staff. He was made assistant chief in 1921 and resigned last January.

MANY DECORATIONS.
General Harbord holds the following decorations: Distinguished service medal; United States navy; Knight Commander, St. Michael and St. George, Great Britain; Commander Legion of Honor, France; grand officer, Order of the Crown, Belgium; Commander Order of St. Morris and St. Lazarus, Italy; grand officer Prince Danilo, Montenegro; and La Solidaridad, Panama.

More Surprises Secured for Big Free Kiddies' Show

Latest Attraction Announced
for Saturday Performance Is Walter Hiers.

Will wonders never cease or surprise numbers never stop being announced for that big free kiddie show which The TRIBUNE and American theater are staging Saturday morning? Of course, you have been reading all about the show and are going to be on hand to see it. You wouldn't miss the chance to see a fine moving picture and watch those clever TRIBUNE Juveniles act, sing and dance, for anything in the world. Well, here is another surprise for you which will make you smile one of those happy-go-lucky kiddie smiles as if you were sure that it is something fine.

Walter Hiers, the well known movie actor comedian, will not only be seen in "Mr. Billings Spends His Dime," a hilarious five-reel comedy hit, but he will make his personal appearance on the stage in "Ten Minutes of Fun," which will set you wild with delight. Funny stories and adventures, etc., will roll from Walter's lips like water from a duck's back.

SONGS, DANCES, ACTS.
Oh, yes, The TRIBUNE Juveniles, or, that is, a number of them, will appear in special songs, dances and acts. It wouldn't be a complete show without them, as these dainty little performers have become famous near and far for their clever acting, singing and dancing.

Every act they have to offer will be first class, but one of the feature numbers on the program will be a one-act playlet, "Jackie Coogan's Dream," written by Beverly Swabe, director of TRIBUNE Juveniles, and coached by Miss Bernice Claire Johnson, assistant coach. Little Kathryn Matthews plays the title role of "Jackie Coogan," and believe us, kiddies, when you see her in her makeup and costume, together with a fine imitation of the mannerisms of the real Jackie, you'll have a hard time believing she is not Jackie herself.

Another feature of the act will be the song, "Jackie Coogan, The Kid," sang for the first time in Oakland. Dorothy Matthews is to play the part of "Coo Coo," the Queen's Jester, and fits the part in a very clever manner. Freda Bonfleur, little one dancer of no mean ability, is to be "Light-foot," the dancing fairy. Emily Traves, a new and talented member of the troupe, will be seen as the "Singing Fairy."

HAPPINESS AND JOY.
Nyla Tansey and Arline Jorgenson are to play "Happiness and Gayety," two little sisters who are always dispensing happiness and joy.

Thelma and Doris Hubbard will put on a double song number, "Open Your Arms, My Alabama," which you will enjoy a great deal, as they always put their numbers over in big style. Evelyn Grace Cavanaugh will offer a new and dainty dance specialty as she always does. Alberta Blair, old time favorite, will sing "My Home Town," and Dorothy Daun and Dorothy Burke will be seen in their new and clever rubber dance to arrive here at 1:55 tomorrow are Mrs. Harbord and David Sarnoff, vice-president and general manager of the Radio Corporation.

WALTER HIERS, famous comedian of the screen, who will be seen by TRIBUNE-American kiddies Saturday morning in "Mr. Billings Spends His Dime." He will also appear in person for "Ten Minutes of Fun."

NATURE never intended shoe prisons for growing feet. Cramp five toes into narrow bone-bending shoes and corns, bunions, callouses, weak arches and other foot ailments result. And they are so unnecessary, because Educator shoes are scientifically built to "let the feet grow as they should."

Trotsky, it is understood, will continue to act as the fighting force of the heavy task of whipping factories into shape. He will work out plans to and will present them to the party.

As an organizer, Trotsky has been called in this particular job, had for opposition by some of the party, who consider that the war minister would "let control" over the party. which a split might develop, and to warn all that in the end the fate of our republic will depend chiefly upon whether the peasant masses will follow the working classes, or unite with the "Newmen." The clearer we have this possibility before our eyes the better the workmen and peasants will understand it, and the better will we be able to avoid a split that would be ruinous to the Soviet government.

The party congress will devote also considerable time to projects for the prevention of bribery and to curtail the red tape which now entangles most government bureaus. Lenin in his article says that with the exception of the foreign office, virtually all of the government departments are today as they were in the old days, using the same old typical bureaucratic methods.

Fresno Lad Leaps From Burning Home

FRESNO, March 15.—A leap from the second story window of his home at Coalinga, Fresno county, when he awoke to find the house in flames, probably saved the life of Oscar Coffey, Jr., seven years old, who was slightly burned about the face and hands. Mrs. Coffey, the lad's mother, escaped with minor burns by running through the flames and down the stairway. The house was destroyed.

NEW YORK, March 15.—(By Associated Press.)—Mr. and Mrs. George J. Gould Jr. were divorced at Nice, France, on February 26, friends here learned today. The two children have been awarded to the mother.

The marriage took place at Philadelphia in 1917, when both were 21 years old, soon after Gould had been graduated from Columbia University. Mrs. Gould was Laura Carter, a dancer. The marriage caused a temporary estrangement between Gould and his parents. Instead of entering the Gould companies, as was expected, he went into the bond business with his brother-in-law, Anthony J. Drexel Jr.

Gould is said to be in Egypt. His wife and children went to France some months ago.

BERLIN REJECTS FASHION SPECIALTIES BARRED AT RHINE SINCE RUHR INVASION.

MADE IN FRANCE

Fashion Specialties Barred at Rhine Since Ruhr Invasion.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.
DEARLY WIFE TO TRIBUNE.

BERLIN, March 15.—Frieda and Gretchen are to have no more Paris gowns. There are to be no more smart little hats brought to Germany from the fashionable millinery shops on the Place Vendôme and the Rue de la Paix.

These articles are not permitted to cross the German boundary since the French invasion of the Ruhr, and the leaders of the German fashion industry have instructed their buyers that French models are not to be bought either directly or indirectly.

High prices in France had prevented German firms from buying many models. Consequently the importations of such finery from France had been inconsiderable as compared to pre-war times. But Berlin modists were slowly resuming their Paris trips and buying good quality of late creations when the Ruhr trouble came along and brought the general boycott against articles made in France.

BERLIN IS SATISFIED.
Baron Drecoll, managing director of one of Berlin's greatest fashion shops, told the correspondent of The Associated Press that this latest prohibition will make little difference to Berlin designers, as they have not relied directly on Paris for their styles since the beginning of the war and have, to a great extent, become creators of their own models.

"Of course, many of our ideas come from Paris. It is foolish to deny that Paris leads in the creation of models," declared the baron. "But Germany has learned to develop Parisian suggestions and adapt them. In many cases they are greatly modified, as Parisian designs are often too extreme for our taste. The prohibition against the importation of French goods will affect modistes and milliners only in two lines, silk and flowers. It is difficult to replace certain French silks and flowers."

• VIENNA HELPING OUT.

Vienna and Berlin have been working together in the development of modes since the beginning of the world war. Because of the low exchange they have been successful in developing a considerable trade for model gowns in the Scandinavian countries, the Balkans and Central Europe. American and French fashion magazines have been the source of many ideas for the German and Austrian fashion creators. They also send their representative to the great watering places on the Riviera and have little difficulty in keeping up with the latest French fashions.

In Berlin virtually all French and Belgian nationals occupying apartments or rooms are being dispossessed. They were barred in January from all hotels. There are about 3000 French and 1000 Belgians resident in the city.

In the stores merchants and clerks have no time for Frenchment and will not knowingly serve them. Women clerks in shops are even more bitter against the French than men, and take great pains to make sure their customers are not their most hated enemies.

Frenchmen are brusquely ordered out of shops as soon as their nationality becomes known. Cafes and bars refuse to serve them. Barber shops have hung up the sign "No Frenchmen admitted," and taxicabs turn down everyone with a French accent.

Supply Train Plans Made by WAR OFFICERS

WASHINGTON, March 15.—A million men at the front would consume thirty million pounds a day in food and stores, army statistics indicate, as figures gained from A. E. F. experience show that thirty pounds per man per day is the absolute minimum.

The figures came up during recent calculations as to train operating personnel necessary to handle the flow of materials to the front. It was estimated that a single field army would require the movement of 4000 tons a day of supplies. Railways to the front in supplying this one army would have to be prepared to handle twelve trains daily each way.

Under the new plan of building up in the organized reserve the complete framework of railway operating battalions from the personnel of the existing railway systems, forty-four of these units are available. Even in the event that all were called suddenly into service, it is believed at the War Department that there would be no serious impairment of the operating forces of the railroads, as not more than 5 per cent of the operating personnel would be involved.

POLES ACCEPT CITIZENSHIP TO HELP IN FRANCE

PARIS, March 15.—Although the birth rate is not doing much to increase the population of France, the number of citizens is being augmented in other ways. Five thousand Poles have taken out their first citizenship papers in the last two years. They came to France, along with 40,000 other Poles, on contract to work in the mines and on the farms and relieve the deficiency in French labor due to the war.

These workers are brought in by consent of the French government, generally under six months' contract, but most of them stay beyond their time, and many of them marry and become citizens. France also is importing Italian, Belgian and Spanish labor to a considerable extent, and it is roughly estimated that 150,000 immigrants are working on the farms and in the mines and in the reconstruction of northern France.

BODY IS SENT EAST.
RICHMOND, March 15.—The body of Mrs. Emma Louise Grant, whose death occurred some time ago in El Cerrito, was shipped to New York last night. The body was accompanied by a daughter, Mrs. Lillian E. Baird, of St. Cloud, Fla. Another daughter is Mrs. Marion M. Wright, postmistress at El Cerrito.

OAKLAND BASKS
IN CHILLING
IN JUNE
EAST FREEZES UP

Weather Reports Show a Big Difference in Favor of California.

Ideal summer weather is prevail-ent in the bay region and throughout all California. Yesterday, with temperatures at the freezing point in New York, Chicago and other eastern cities and heavy storm of rain and snow in the Mississippi Valley and Great Lakes region, Californians were basking in the sunshine with still air and medium temperatures.

At Oakland yesterday, the maximum was 62 and the minimum 47 degrees. Los Angeles had 70 and 50 respectively and San Diego 72 and 46. At Fresno and Sacramento, usually extremely hot in the summer, the mercury stood at 62 during most of the day. At San Francisco, the extremes were 53 and 52 degrees.

By way of comparison, it rained and snowed in Chicago, with a temperature of 28 degrees. In New York, the mercury varied between 24 and 40. In Denver, the temperature was 14, with .52 inches of rainfall.

BLIZZARD GRIPS
MIDWEST ZONE

CHICAGO, March 15.—The midwestern storm extends from Texas northeastward across the lower Missouri valley to the Great Lakes, it was announced today by the weather bureau, with attendant precipitation covering most trans-Mississippi sections as far west as the Rockies. Considerable snow is reported, especially in Nebraska and Iowa.

OMAHA, Neb., March 15.—
Thousands of workers who buckle snowdrifts waist deep today when a blizzard completely tied up street car traffic and other means of transportation. For the first time in twenty years not a wheel turned on Omaha streets. Stalled automobiles lined the middle of the streets.
The blizzard was general throughout this section. A high wind drifted the snow eight to ten feet deep. Trains on all roads were hours late. Many were annulled.

AMARILLO, Tex., March 15.—
The Texas Panhandle today is in the grip of a blizzard. The mercury at Amarillo was 12 degrees above zero early today.

Candidate and Debs Charge Admission
CHICAGO, March 15.—(By Associated Press.)—William A. Gunner, Socialist candidate for mayor of Chicago, charges his hearers twenty-five cents to listen to his campaign speech and that of his political assistant, Eugene V. Debs.
Gunner takes up a collection during each session. He made the statement last night that the Socialist party had established a precedent, "something never heard of by any other political party."

Debs, at a meeting last night,
where numbers were turned away,
spoke about the war, asserting it was started by capitalists, for capitalists, but fought by the workers.

"We are holding these meetings all over the city and the capitalist press will not even mention us in their columns," he said.

It's easy to check
your Electric Bill,
Your Electric Meter will show—exactly—the amount of Electricity you used during any period, measured in Kilowatt Hours (K. W. H.)—the unit of Electrical measurement, just as pounds and inches are units of measurement for other commodities.

Your power, for instance, figures the cost of sugar as follows:
Number of pounds multiplied by cost per pound equals cost of sugar
P. G. and E. figures the cost of your Electricity in exactly the same way:
Number of Kilowatt Hours multiplied by cost per K. W. H. equals cost of Electricity Ask at any P. G. and E. office for Free Booklet, "How to Read Your Electric Meter," and ask to see the schedule of Electric rates that applies in your community.

What Do You Fear?
Are you afraid of failure in getting what you want—in putting afraid of YOURSELF—your own ability to develop and round out to the full a rich and ardent life?

Applied Psychology will show you how to overcome these fears
—Mr. Holmes will tell you why.
Hear FENWICK L. HOLMES, the leading authority on Applied Psychology and Metaphysics, in a series of Free Lectures at Ebell Hall, 1440 Harrison street, Oakland, commen-

How to Relieve Neuritis

If you want genuine, lasting relief from those keen, darting pains of neuritis, you must first restore the diseased nerves to sound, healthy conditions.
Neuritis is nerve inflammation brought on by colds, injuries, bruises or infectious diseases. It usually centers its attack about the shoulder or nape of neck, in the forearm, thigh or leg, and sometimes in the small of the back.
For real relief, procure a bottle of Eopa Neuritis Tablets from your druggist and take two tablets before each meal. The result will amaze you. Never in your life have you used anything like these marvelous tablets.
Eopa Neuritis Tablets contain no habit-forming drugs—no narcotics. Perfectly harmless to everyone. Price $1. For sale by Bocricke & Runyon Co., 425 14th St.,

MAKES READJUSTMENT
 SAN LEANDRO, March 15.—(Special to Tribune.)—A series of adjustments was made throughout parts of San Leandro, where they were found to be too low as compared with the rest of the city. It is under way now by John Smith, deputy assessor. The work has been in progress for a week and probably will continue for a week longer.

SCRAP OF PAPER, HIGHLY SERVED, BREWS TROUBLE

Summons Server Gathers Woe While He Spreads Grief for Others.

By FRANCES MONTGOMERY.
 We all have our troubles. Life is very much like a waffle. Punctured with troubles on one side but turned over and you'll find that for every dent there's a puff of joy. And troubles light on every shoulder some time or other. Some people involuntarily entice the bird; others can't dodge it no matter how lively they step. Seems like the folks who are busy handing other people a package wouldn't have time to negotiate with trouble themselves, but that's just where they get theirs. Try to make trouble for the other fellow and it's sure to do the boomerang and bounce back on you.

Take the summons server for instance. Poor soul, innocently enough he hands you a little piece of paper that's sure to spell some degree of trouble. He means you no harm but it's his business to hand around the makings. You get what is coming to you and where does the summons server come in? A modicum of paper can start an ocean of trouble for the server as well as the served and, believe me, the summons server comes in all right.

MOST ANYTHING HAPPENS.
 According to Frank Ryan, deputy constable of Oakland township, the summons server often has to "come in" to make the job complete and lawful. Says Ryan: "I've been serving summons since 1903 and most anything can happen on the job. Trouble for the summons server varies from having to hear a life history to encountering a regular rum-pump. If the summons server had six hands he'd have them all full sometimes. I remember once I had to serve attachment papers for a stove. I could have kept three pairs of hands busy. Arriving at the home of the people who had the stove, the wife let me in. I served the papers. 'Sorry, madam, but I must take your stove,' I said. 'Sure,' says she, 'go right in the kitchen and help yourself.' I stepped into the kitchen. There was the stove just waiting to be taken. It was all lit up for the occasion. It was red hot with a roaring fire. The wife was holding away on top of the flames. Well, duty is duty so I began by pouring on water to put out the fire. At the third painful I turned to find the woman's burlap husband leveling the barrel of a shotgun in my direction. I had to act quick and in the scuffle I knocked him down. Now when an officer has cause to strike a man and does so he must arrest him so I did. Those were the days of the horse and buggy and we started to drive to town, but he pleaded so with me that I let him go back home with the promise that he would pay for the stove the next morning."

PAGES BANANA KNIFE.
 Another time when it looked like trouble for this same summons server he found himself serving papers on an Italian fruit vendor who "spoke English." A tiny little Italian girl who sat on a box in one corner of the store acted as interpreter and after many minutes of apparently failing to make the fruit vendor understand she was directed to tell him that unless he paid his debt the summons server would be obliged to take produce from his counters. At that the "no understanding Italian, beside hurling an avalanche of remarkably good and explicit English at the summons server prepared to follow it up with a wicked looking banana knife. Trouble enough then and the cops on that beat had to come to the rescue.

Youth Must Be Served--With a Summons

The summons server does not always have such a thrill-packed trouble. Some times his troubles are very funny and exasperating. Usually one-half his trouble is in catching up with his victim. Nine-tenths of us insist on dodging the summons server but it's a waste of time and energy for it's on your trail he'll get you eventually.

After a certain woman had saved her husband for some weeks from the summons server by declaring he was not at home, the man with the summons decided to camp on the premises until he had securely delivered the papers. He learned that the man he was after invariably arrived home on the last car at 11:30 p. m. He hid behind a tree near the car line. It was a dark night and the suburban street was lined with many trees. When he saw his man alight from the car he confronted him.

HIT HIM WITH SUMMONS.
 "I have a summons for you," he said, but that was as far as he got for the man disappeared. Then began a wild and exciting game of dodging from tree to tree. "We finally clinched," said the summons server as he related the tale "and he gave up when I hit him over the head with the papers."

Then he hastened to explain that to be legally served with a summons the person served must be touched by the papers. The man in this case was apparently quite touched.

A few days ago a New York actress, after a time of evading the summons server, who sought to present her with divorce papers, smilingly received a gorgeous and ample bouquet of roses over the footlights during an evening performance. When she sought to learn the identity of the sender by reading the faintly attached card she found she had been successfully served with summons for divorce. That summons server said it with flowers. Others learn to put it over in various ways for they claim it is no fun to trail a man or woman they've never seen and who know why they're being pursued and act accordingly.

HEAP OF TROUBLE.
 He has a heap of trouble handed to him who doesn't deserve it and he says the women do no more of the handing than the men. It's 50-50. He claims that the most serious trouble the women make for him is compelling him to listen to their troubles. But the summons server says it's all in the day's work and he's prepared for any circumstances that may rival the movements of Box and Cox or the escapades of halfbreed Harry.

But the summons server also says: "Would that serving summons was the least of my troubles."

STOLEN WATCH A GIFT.
 NEW YORK.—Arriving home sumably stolen by a pickpocket from work, Frederick Colton found in his pocket a gold watch, price $100. He passed it on, fearing arrest.

Many Poultry Raisers have found the way to make more money

Much depends upon the first few weeks of a chicken's life, more, in fact, than many Poultry Raisers realize. Of what use is it to hatch good chicks unless they are given a start that will make them profitable producers. The days of feeding only Chick Feed (scratch) to Baby Chicks are gone forever among wide-awake Poultrymen for the reason that the Death Rate is too high because Vitality is too low. Because the results are just opposite from this that is, the two things that make more money for Poultry Raisers follow the use of Globe "A1" Baby Chick Mash.

First—a decreased death rate of Baby Chicks because of increased vitality. Second—greater egg production.

The reasons are clearly set forth in "How to Raise Baby Chicks." This book is free. Send for it today. In California alone, last year, it was the guide for raising more than Two Million Baby Chicks which were fed Globe "A1" Baby Chick Mash. Address Globe Mills, Poultry Department, San Francisco.

DIAMONDS LEFT ON BED STOLEN

SAN FRANCISCO, March 15.—The theft of a diamond pendant valued at $1200 and a small sum of money was reported to the police today by Mrs. E. B. Towle, of 1096 Pine street. The pendant was the property of Mrs. M. P. Francis, of 1255 Taylor street, and the police are searching for a man who called upon Mrs. Towle while she was entertaining friends late yesterday.

According to the story told the police, Mrs. Towle became tired and reclined on a couch. Her purse and a handbag belonging to Mrs. Francis were left lying on a bed in an adjoining room. It was not until late last night that Mrs. Francis discovered her loss and communicated with Mrs. Towle. The latter then found that her purse had been opened and $5 taken and she reported the loss to the detective department.

Professor Raps Potato Growing A la Skyscraper
 The method announced yesterday in San Leandro of growing potatoes in "sky scraper" style—one row above the other—was declared not to be successful from an economic standpoint today by J. W. Gilmore, professor of agronomy at the University of California, and authority on potato raising.

"There is nothing new in this," said Professor Gilmore today, "it has been done before and has proved that the old way is by far the more profitable one. Potatoes can be grown, one row above the other, in the so-called 'sky-scraper' style, but it is an expensive experiment, and one could much better afford to buy potatoes than grow them in that manner."

BERKELEYAN IN COLLISION.
 Adriano Martinez, 45, 1821 East Twentieth street, was treated at the emergency hospital for lacerations on the scalp received when his automobile collided with a machine driven by J. H. Smith, 2308 East street, Berkeley, at Twelfth street and Nineteenth avenue, last evening. Smith took the injured man to the hospital.

LIQUID HELIUM FINE FREEZER

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS
LEAD WIRE TO TRIBUNE
TORONTO, Ont., March 15.—Professor John C. McCallum of the University of Toronto has discovered a process for liquefying helium gas. The new discovery, it is said, will open up big possibilities for the gas in the industrial field.

Helium is a non-combustible gas which is nearly as light as hydrogen gas and can be used as a substitute for it. Its principal use up to the present time has been as a filling for dirigible balloons and other lighter than air craft, because of its non-inflammability. Many air disasters due to the ignition of gas bags could have been avoided, it is said, if helium gas had been used.

In its new liquefied state helium will be particularly valuable in refrigeration, since its temperature reaches within one degree of absolute zero. This property of extreme temperature will also make the liquefied gas especially useful in scientific research, according to Professor McCallum.

The value of helium as a commercial product is enhanced by its comparative scarcity. The United States and Canada are the only countries in which it is found. During the war the United States took steps to extract and conserve its helium gas, and since the war it has prohibited its export from the country. Canada's source of helium is located at Bow Island, near Calgary, Alta. This field is said to be the largest in existence.

Now in Progress---

"Any organization that can keep on growing year after year for fifty years can do so only by rendering a constant and useful service."

Fifty years ago, in March, 1873, in the city of San Jose, the first Wiley B. Allen sign appeared. A small store with small capital, but big in ideas and in its purpose, it prospered. Later it sought larger rooms and grew in the great Northwest to the land of the gold.

A CELEBRATION AND AN OPPORTUNITY
This month we celebrate the completion of a half-century of effort and accomplishment. We celebrate it in the completion of our new, beautiful store at 1323 Washington—the finest and most tastefully arranged music store in the West. A store made necessary by the growth of our Oakland business and our faith in the future of the great home city of the bay district, and we celebrate, too, our removal from our present limited space by making this an opportunity for home and music lovers—an opportunity for you to buy as piano you want at the price you want to pay—and there is opportunity here.

STUDENTS WALK OUT TO PROTEST TEACHER FIRED

PHILADELPHIA, March 15.—A strike of students in protest against the dropping of Dr. Alice Weld Tallant, for 13 years instructor in obstetrics at the women's medical college of Philadelphia was in effect today. The student body, comprising 125 women, voted to remain away from all classes and declared they would "stick to the end."

Dr. Tallant, who served in France during the World War as a warfare worker, recently was unofficially notified that the executive committee of the board of incorporators of the institution would not vote for her reappointment after the close of the present term. Members of the board admitted that she was "severely relations" with the college, but denied that she had been dismissed.

BANDIT GARDNER NOW IN DUNGON NOW IN DUNGON

LEAVENWORTH, Kansas, March 15.—Roy Gardner, notorious Pacific coast bandit, is in close confinement in the federal penitentiary here. It became known today. Threats to break prison or do bodily harm to guards was the cause of the action taken against Gardner. Warden Biddle said:

Gardner began making threats when an application for an operation to relieve alleged pressure on the skull was denied by Dr. Albert F. Yeh, prison physician. Shortly after his arrival at the prison from Arizona where he was captured while trying to hold up an express messenger, Gardner made an application for the operation, stating that he had received an injury to his head while working in a mine. Dr. Yeh reported that he could find only a slight depression on Gardner's skull and recommended that no operation be performed.

MRS. BILL HART'S FATHER BLAMED MOTHER-IN-LAW

Thomas Heide Says History Repeating Itself in Troubles of Film Star

SAN FRANCISCO, March 15.—The separation of Winifred Westover and "Big Bill" Hart is a case of family history repeating itself, according to Thomas C. Heide, local mining engineer and father of young Mrs. Hart, who declared today that he and Winifred's mother had been estranged years ago for the same reason—a mother-in-law.

"Winifred's mother has inherited an excess of the 'mother-in-law' spirit from her own mother, and she has wrecked her daughter's romance just as her mother wrecked hers," Heide asserted.

This explains why "Bill" Hart received his wife's charges of cruelty with simple denials and then silence, Heide said. "It was because the real fault lay with Winifred's mother, but he could not tell her publicly."

It has not been generally known that Heide, and not Clyde Westover, the scenario writer, was the real father of Winifred Westover Hart. According to Heide, he and Winifred's mother separated when the future Mrs. Hart was 7 years old, and Winifred was given to her mother. Ten years later, in 1915, Winifred's mother married Westover.

The separation between himself and Winifred's mother was caused entirely by his mother-in-law, Heide said. Religious differences arose between the latter and himself, and his mother-in-law came to exercise a greater and greater influence in family affairs, through her dominance of her daughter's will.

"My wife's mother arranged everything for the divorce," said Heide. "She consulted the attorneys, and all my wife did was to sign the papers as her mother told her."

Now, according to Heide, the same thing has occurred in the second generation—Winifred's mother has played the same role for her own mother played before her, and this time Winifred and "Bill" Hart are the victims.

Heide lives at 418 Hayes street, and has made his headquarters as a mining engineer in San Francisco for the past thirty-four years.

OAKLAND LIONS BACK COMMUNITY CHEST CAMPAIGN

Career of Grover Cleveland Theme for Address at Luncheon

The members of the Oakland Lions club at yesterday's luncheon at the Hotel Oakland voiced their approval of the Community Chest idea, and expressed their willingness to aid in the project. The work was outlined in a talk by Arthur Moore, who represents the Community Chest organization.

A talk was also given by Clarence DeLoach, who spoke briefly on the career of Grover Cleveland, who was born on March 15, 1837. "At the age of 22 Cleveland was an attorney at law," said the speaker. "He later became deputy district attorney and after that was elected mayor of the city of Buffalo. In 1882 he was elected governor of New York, and in 1884 was nominated and elected President of the United States. This was a most phenomenal rise. In four years he held three of the most important executive offices in the country, mayor, governor and president. What was the reason for this phenomenal rise? The ability to say 'No' and stick to it."

A musical program was given at yesterday's meeting under the direction of Eugene Blanchard, the club's song leader. Those participating in the program were Robert Bourke, violinist; Mrs. Eugene Blanchard, soprano; and N. J. Anderson, baritone.

Clark Insurance Suit Threatened

Declaring its desire to avoid being involved in litigation over an insurance policy on the life of Wm. C. Clark, an attorney, who died September 20, 1922, the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company has filed a suit asking permission to deposit the amount payable with the court for adjudication.

The suit makes Jennie E. Clark, 113 Montecito avenue, a sister, and executrix of the estate, defendant. The complaint declares that the executrix and Eva Powell, 2703 Dwight way, Berkeley, have each threatened to bring suit against the company to collect the insurance.

It is stated that the policy, now worth $6469.24, was assigned by Clark to Eva Powell on December 10, 1917, and that a copy of this assignment was filed with the company, but that the executrix has made conflicting claims. Clark left an estate appraised at $120,751.

COMFORTABLY FIXED PEOPLE ADOPT BOY

"I hear that the Browns have adopted a little boy. I think that is a very nice thing to do. Money and it will be the best thing in the world for them, as well as giving some poor youngster a home."

"Yes, indeed. It was very nice of them to take the boy. He seems to be an orphan, and the people whom he was living with were very cruel to him. They beat him and almost starved the child, I hear. Mr. Brown heard about it by accident, and they went through the usual red tape and have adopted the boy legally. I hear he is developing into a wonderful child with a little kindness."

"Estelle says they are so fond of him that Mr. Brown can hardly get himself away to go to the office in the morning."

"We must call some day and see the child. I should like to hear all about him from Mrs. Brown herself. You told me you were owing her a call, too. Why don't we both go on some afternoon?"

"I am willing, of course, only I feel that I must have that new dress I've been promising myself before I do any calling. I will try to afford it by next week if you will wait for me."

Lakeview Association Wins Trophy

By EDNA B. KINARD.
Although Technical High School Parent-Teacher Association may claim to be the largest organization of its kind in the United States, it has lost the H. C. Capwell membership cup awarded for the greatest percentage increase in enrolling during the year by Oakland Federation of Mothers Clubs. Lakeview Parent-Teacher Association by registering approximately a 200 per cent advance in members will hold the prized trophy for the coming 12 months. Fremont High school and Technical High school, however, are not without honors for they have won the second and third places respectively in the annual drive which is directed toward enlisting mothers and fathers in the school life of their children. Lakeview Club, Mrs. Carlos G. White, membership chairman, raised the enrollment from 105 to 368 members and reports an average attendance conspicuously above the 50 per cent standard even for meetings omitting programs. Fremont association jumped from a membership of 127 to 254 under the leadership of Mrs. E. A. Rogers. Technical association entered the campaign with an enrollment of 555. The final membership is reported at 1052, the only club in the United States exceeding 1000 members. This group of mothers, fathers and teachers have held the cup during the past year. Mrs. I. Guy Burks was leader in the drive. McChesney Parent-Teacher Association is the successful candidate for the Hotel Oakland Club awarded in the schools having but six grades. The enrollment of 75 was increased to 254, 54 names of which are fathers. Mrs. W. Dunn and Mrs. F. S. Briggs were the membership chairmen. The annual membership drive for Oakland Federation of Mothers Clubs was prompted under the leadership of Mrs. J. V. Dillman.

IRELAND REBELS LOSE IN BATTLE THREE KILLED

Free State Forces Beat Off Attacks; Heroic Soldiers Prevent Disaster.

DUBLIN, March 13. (By International News Service.)—Three Free State soldiers and one irregular were killed in fighting today.

Two Free State soldiers were killed during a clash with rebels in Dublin, and one Free State and one rebel were killed in a fight at Charlestown.

The fighting at Charlestown followed a raid upon the town of irregulars. Private Barry, of the Free State army, proved a hero at Athlone, when, at the risk of his life, he swung aboard a runaway locomotive, which rebels had turned loose, and stopped it, thus preventing it from crashing into a passenger train.

Irregulars have issued a "proclamation of mourning," ordering all places of amusement closed, and prohibiting all sports. This is taken as an indication that the rebels intend to try to stop the Siki-Mo-Tigue fight here on Saturday.

Telephone reports indicate the flames are still sweeping through Las Flores Canyon in a southerly direction; through Millard Canyon up the mountainside, and on Inspiration Point along nearby ridges in an easterly course.

Residents of that district were warned shortly after midnight to be in readiness to leave their homes in case the flames, which are headed for that district, get beyond control.

Both Alpine Tavern and another hotel are on Mount Lowe, which were in imminent danger of destruction all day yesterday, are reported out of immediate danger. More than 150 women and children were hurried from the tavern and transported to Pasadena, where it was thought the flames could not be headed off.

WESTGATE COOKED

OVEN COOKED

IT PAYS FOR ITSELF in food saved~ NO SHRINKAGE

Many a woman has bought a Westgate Automatic Electric Cooking Cabinet—only to find that she was really getting it for nothing.

Startling, isn't it? But solidly founded upon fact.

In the first place, The Westgate saves on the butcher's bill by cooking the cheaper cuts of meat.

And Westgate cooking is "shrinkless" cooking. Every woman who has compared the "in" and "out" weights of an oven-cooked roast, knows what that means. (30% loss, most authorities say, is a conservative average.)

The reason is simple: Like the famous old "Dutch Oven" of grandmother's day, The Westgate cooks evenly and slowly. It keeps the flavor in, but doesn't dry out the meat.

and It Takes the Drudgery Out of Cooking

No expensive wiring; fuel cost less per hour than wood or coal stoves; "Dutch Oven" faster than other proven features of The Westgate. And in addition, it cooks without watching. You put raw food in after breakfast or when you like—set a simple alarm-clock control to turn on the power at a given time—then forget it until dinner time.

Free Demonstrations—Two Ways

We know that The Westgate is a proven, practical piece of cooking equipment which will pay for itself many times over in food saved and increased "joy of living." We want to prove it—absolutely without obligation to you.

Let us send a trained Demonstrator-Service Woman into your home and cook you a Westgate meal (send coupon for details). Also see The Westgate at the leading stores listed below.

It is the only one that cooks your meat in half the time, saves your energy, and costs no fuel. It is the only one that cooks your meat in half the time, saves your energy, and costs no fuel.

Commissioner Tells Rotarians
City Must Spend More Liberal.

"Oakland cannot expect to keep abreast of other cities of the Pacific Coast as a seaport by spending a few thousand dollars on its harbor each year, while the other cities are spending millions," Commissioner Albert E. Carter told the members of the Rotary Club at a luncheon at the Hotel Oakland.

Carter's talk, he said, was "the opening gun in a campaign to develop a greater harbor for the city of Oakland."

"Seattle, Tacoma, Portland, Astoria, San Francisco, Los Angeles and San Diego have spent and are spending large sums of money in the development of their harbor facilities," Carter said. "Oakland is attempting to keep abreast of these other cities by spending a few thousand dollars out of the annual budget, while these other cities are spending millions through bond issues."

"If we hope to keep abreast of the other ports of the Pacific Coast we must resort to a bond issue of several million dollars in order to provide the facilities that the shipping world demands and that any port must have."

DOPE WITNESS
KIDNAPED, CLAIM

SAN FRANCISCO, March 15.—

Claiming to have been kidnapped by three men whose names he has given to the authorities, Frank Faber, arrested for violating the narcotic laws two months ago, told a startling story in Federal Judge Robert Bean's court today. As the result of his disclosure a rigid investigation has been ordered into the case of Mrs. Nell Barry, acquitted Tuesday on a charge of possessing guns.

Mrs. Barry was arrested July 3 at her home, 1671 Sacramento street and Faber is said to have been a witness whose testimony it presented would have resulted in her conviction. He was captured coming out of her home and it is alleged was prepared to testify that he was a narcotic dealer and that he had sold dope to her.

Faber says three men took him in an automobile to Los Angeles where he was kept a prisoner at the Argonaut hotel. When Mrs. Barry's trial was over he was brought back by his captors, arriving at 3:30 this morning. He says he recognized the pistols of his captors as belonging to a brother of Mrs. Barry. The Assistant United States attorney joined in asking for leniency for Faber and he was given sixty days in the county jail.

Jurors Advocate
Examination for Auto Drivers

A recommendation that a law be passed compelling all automobile drivers to pass a mental and physical examination before they are given operators' licenses was contained in a verdict returned by a coroner's jury today in the case of a 7-year-old boy who was instantly killed in an accident on March 8. The verdict also recommended that the driver of the car be charged with manslaughter, stated that this was made because the driver had had evidence that the driver had been drinking.

The case was that of C. J. Bonnemazon, 2015 Richmond avenue, who ran over and instantly killed John E. Ginochio, son of John D. Ginochio, 678 Forty-sixth street, as he was playing in the street.

Immediately after the verdict the child's father swore to a complaint before Police Judge William J. Hennessy, who issued a warrant for the motorist's arrest on a charge of manslaughter.

PROGRESSIVES
WORK FOR BONUS

By H. K. REYNOLDS,
International News Service Staff Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, March 15.—The birth of a unified "Progressive bloc" in the House of Representatives, similar to that already organized in the senate, served today to further strengthen the belief of the golden bonus advocates in the capital that cash compensation will be provided for American world war veterans within the next year.

Listed near the top in the program of "desirable" legislation in the Progressive platform is the soldiers' bonus bill, passed by Congress several months ago and vetoed by President Harding.

Representative John M. Nelson of Wisconsin, chairman of the Republican Progressive Conference, today said he believed the new group would be able to muster enough votes to pass a bonus bill over a presidential veto if the legislation should again meet with executive disapproval.

Representative Roy O. Woodruff, Republican of Michigan, will outline a new bonus scheme to the conference when it meets here before the convening of the Sixty-eighth Congress.

American Legion headquarters here were pleased by the announcement of policy by the Progressive organization. John T. Taylor, the legion's legislative agent, indicated the veterans' organization would ally itself with the Wisconsin Progressives.

"We are thoroughly convinced," Taylor said, "that the next Congress will put a bonus bill on the statute books. New senators and congressmen, many of them of Progressive leaning, will undoubtedly swing the balance in favor of the service men."

Hero of "Empty Grave" Case on Way to Prison

FORT WORTH, Texas, March 15.—The final chapter in what is known as the Aspermont "empty grave case" started Wednesday when Byrd Cochran was brought here by train to the Texas penitentiary. He is in jail today awaiting transportation to prison.

Cochran maintains his innocence of implication in the swindling of the insurance company out of the money collected on policies. He claims that that was an after thought of his accomplices. His fake burial—discovered until a year and a half later—was to avoid being taken back to New Mexico to answer what he claims was a trumped-up indictment for murder—and where he feared he would be slain by Mexican enemies. If he did not go his friends forfeited a $10,000 bond.

The methods of the fake burial have never been explained. The coffin was not opened at the grave at request of his wife. She died before the discovery that the grave of corpses. The burial took place in March, 1919, and Cochran was arrested two years later. He was convicted after a sensational trial a year ago.

Cochran was at the time of his supposed burial a well-to-do farmer and ranchman. He is now penniless.

Unkept Date Blamed
By Alleged Burglar

Arguments to the jury began shortly before noon today in the trial of Herbert Odekirk, a salesman, arrested several weeks ago at the Hotel St. Mark on charges of having attempted to rob the room of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Richardson, actors.

Odekirk is said to have been captured when Richardson, grappled with him as he was bending over the Richardson bed, peering into the face of Mrs. Richardson. The sum of $6 was missing from Richardson's clothing. It was discovered that it had been stolen, but not preferred against Odekirk.

STANFORD'S NEW RHHING NAME

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, March 15.—

AFTER BRANNER

Designating
Men's Dormitory.

The new men's dormitory to be built on the Stanford campus by the Stanford Board of Athletic Control as a gift to the university with funds derived from the Stanford stadium.

The structure, which will cost approximately half a million dollars has been named in commemoration of John Caspar Branner, pioneer member of the Stanford faculty, first head of the geology department and second president of the university.

The footings and foundations of Branner Hall were put in several months ago to avoid possible interference by the rains. The work of putting up forms and pouring the walls will be begun at once since the force of men at work on Toyon Hall, the sister dormitory, have practically finished their work. It is thought that Branner Hall will be completed and ready for occupancy by the first of the next college year so that both the new buildings will open a new era of dormitory life on the Stanford campus.

Branner Hall will afford rooming and eating accommodations for 150 men and is designed as a general dormitory on the plan of Sequoia Hall, instead of being utilized as Toyon Hall to house four distinct groups either of fraternities or eating clubs. In external appearance, the two new buildings will be almost identical.

The first payment of $50,000 on Branner Hall comes as a gift to the Stanford board of athletic control, who, after applying that sum on the stadium debt until its liquidation, followed out the donor's requests by transferring it to a non-athletic project. It is thought that the entire sum due on the completed dormitory may be paid off in interest and principal payments within a minimum period of 18 years. According to preliminary budget estimates, this can be accomplished without diminishing the present proportion of expenditure on athletics at the same time allowing for salary competition and equipment increases.

Despatches from Council Bluffs said that Miss Von Schunk's case had been designated as hysteria. Details of the leap are not known.

FIRST AID CLUB

OF ALAMEDA HIGH SCHOOL BROADENS DUTIES

Number of Improvements Made in Rest Room to Care for Sick.

ALAMEDA, March 15.—The girls of the First Aid Club of the Alameda High school have added, during the last week, a number of improvements to the girls' rest room as a donation to the school. For the furnishings were raised at a pie sale held recently under the auspices of the club in the corridor of the school during the noon recess hour.

The First Aid club is the baby organization of the school and is being sponsored by the faculty, as well as receiving co-operation from the various school clubs. At a meeting just held with Miss Frances Pense presiding, members of the club were appointed to take charge of the rest room during school hours and render any needed aid to a sick student.

Plans for the club activities were also discussed which includes visits to hospitals and clinics as the securing of nurses and doctors to address the club members on first aid work.

Lack of Appetite

When Due to Indigestion, Acid, Sour, Blotched Skin, etc., is a Sign of a Stomach Trouble.

When there is indigestion and the stomach does not seem to relish food it is a great mistake to starve or to use stimulants to force appetite. The best way is to woo the stomach back to health by giving it the help it needs, the alkaline effect that arrests acidity, relieves gas, flatulence, pressure that seems to crowd the heart and such distresses due to indigestion. Chew one or two of the large, white tablets after eating, no water needed, and the stomach settles down to restful digestion. You feel eased and comfortable and you get the good of food. You now tackle pie, cheese, pickles, sausage or anything you like without fear. You have the means to prevent the distresses arising from indigestion. Get a 60 cent box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets today of any druggist.—Advertisement.

Reduce Those Dangerous Swollen Veins

Physicians are prescribing and hospitals are using a new and harmless, yet very powerful germicide that not only causes enlarged or varicose veins and blemishes to become normal, but also reduces swollen, enlarged glands and wens. Ask any first class druggist for an original two-ounce bottle of Moore's Emerald Oil (full strength) and refuse to accept anything in its place. It is such a highly concentrated preparation that two ounces lasts a long time and furthermore if this wonderful discovery does not produce the results anticipated, you can have the price refunded.

It is not wise for anyone to allow swollen veins to keep on enlarging. Often they burst and cause weeks of pain, suffering and loss of employment. Start the Emerald Oil treatment as directions advise and improvement will begin at once. Owl Drug Co., or any druggist can supply you.—Advertisement.

SWAMP-ROOT FOR KIDNEY AILMENTS

Swamp-Root makes friends quickly because its mild and immediate effect is soon realized in most cases. It is a gentle, healing vegetable compound.

Start treatment at once. Sold at all drug stores in bottles of two sizes, medium and large.

However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention this paper.—Advertisement.

TIDY HAIR DRY WITH SAGE TEA

If Mixed with Sulphur It Darkens So Naturally Nobody Can Tell.

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's recipe, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the moss, mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply rub it on your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is that, besides beautifying the hair after a few applications it also produces that soft luster and appearance of abundance, which is so attractive.—Advertisement.

MASCAGNI AND MANAGER FIGHT

ROME, March 15.—(By the Associated Press).—Pietro Mascagni, the composer, and Walter Mocchi, who was his impresario during Mascagni's last tour of Brazil, came to blows yesterday at a music congress held in the Lyric theater.

Mascagni during the session renewed a previous accusation of lack of patriotism against Mocchi, saying Mocchi promoted German music in South America with Austrian orchestras. Mocchi retorted that he was a patriot.

Mascagni and Mocchi, coming face to face at the end of the congress, exchanged blows until separated by mutual friends.

SALOON IS GONE FOREVER, AVERS TAMMANY BOSS

NEW YORK, March 15.—Chas. F. Murphy, boss of Tammany Hall, gave his opinion today of a recent statement in which Governor Smith expressed willingness to help Senator Edge of New Jersey pass a bill so "we can put a foot on the rail again and blow off the froth."

"In my judgment," said Murphy, "the saloon in the United States is gone, never to return."

Murphy added that the Governor's remark was merely one of his "characteristic good-natured utterances."

Livermore Meeting To Plan Playground

LIVERMORE, March 15.—Thomas W. Norris, president of the Livermore Grammar School Board of trustees, announced today that a mass meeting will be held in the grammar school next Monday, March 19, to discuss the acquisition of additional ground for a playground for the school children.

Several lots directly in back of the new school building have been already purchased but the ground has proved inadequate and the board contemplates the purchase of several more lots in the same block. It is hoped eventually to fit up the playground in the most approved modern style and the out the trustees' plans.

Additional ground is needed to carry out the plan of having adequate playgrounds together with first-class schools. The recent completion of Livermore's $150,000 grammar school seems to have drawn the people's interest. As a result of the interest taken by the taxpayers the grammar school and high school have both acquired playgrounds. The high school grounds cover almost a block, and the grammar school trustees expect no opposition toward their plan for increasing the size of the grammar school playground.

tell-tale

A soiled collar can't betray your personal habits any quicker than this one thing.

PEOPLE often judge you as much by your appearance as by what you say. And the opinion the other fellow forms about you frequently has almost everything to do with the way you get on—both in business and socially.

Perhaps you never stopped to think about it, but it's a psychological fact that when you are talking, people intuitively watch your lips and teeth. That's where the soiled collar comes in. It's the eyes go.

And when your teeth are not clean—when they are dull, unkempt looking or badly stained with tobacco—they mark you down at once as an unfashionable person. To a great many people unclean teeth are perfectly revolting. So really clean teeth become more than merely a matter of good taste.

Only the right dentifrice—consistently used—will protect you against such criticism. Listerine Tooth Paste cleans teeth a new way. The first tube you buy (25 cents) or the free sample (see coupon) will prove this to you.

You will notice the improvement even in the first few days. And, moreover, just as Listerine is the safe antiseptic, so Listerine Tooth Paste is the safe dentifrice. It cleans yet it cannot injure the enamel.

Otherwise, if you will trouble about the office buildings of the city you will come upon many public stenographers, carefully hidden away on upper floors, whose only contact with the public is through a name on the door.

REPORTED CUT BY 'INDEPENDENTS'

Declares Methods Are Detrimental.

T. C. Tucker, manager of the California Almond Growers Exchange, has returned to San Francisco from a three weeks' business trip to New York where he succeeded in moving a considerable tonnage of Blue Diamond Brand almonds into the Jewish holiday trade. He was unable, however, he said, to dispense with all of the holdings of the exchange owing to the fact that the independent shippers had on hand surplus almonds left from their Thanksgiving and Christmas requirements, and because of serious price cutting by California independent shippers of almonds.

"The markets for most nuts are weak," Tucker declared. "A large supply of Brazil nuts at low prices may have something to do with it but in my opinion price slashing by independent almond shippers is the chief cause of our difficulties. It could be no legitimate reason for this price slashing by the speculative elements in almond shipping but it is impossible to stop it as long as growers outside of a cooperative elect to work against their own best interests by sending their crops into competition through the speculative element. I am sure they would all join our association to assure fair prices and returns."

BOOM EXCEEDS ALL FORECASTS

Apartment Houses in Lead, With Dwellings Following; Business Blocks Next.

NEW YORK, March 15.—America is experiencing a record spring building boom.

United Press demarcates from cities in all parts of the country today indicate that building permits are being issued on an unprecedented scale.

The greatest increase is in apartment houses. Dwellings come second, and business structures are a close third.

Compared with the first two months of last year, January and February show an enormous increase. Reports indicate that the buildings going up and those about to be constructed are of a more expensive sort than those erected during 1922.

Building conditions are greatly improved in every part of the country and wage disputes are nearly all settled in the building trades.

Chicago reports the biggest boom in its history. Permits to March 1 this year totaled $4,324,000, as compared with $2,435,350 for the first two months of 1922.

In Detroit, 3500 permits have been taken out to date this year, involving the sum of $15,012,823. These permits include 73 apartment houses.

An increase of about $3,000,000 is shown in Atlanta's building program for two months.

This year's figure is $5,317,669.

New York City's figures for January and February are: Permits, 3531; cost, $143,205,010. A great number of the permits are for small houses and bungalows in Queensboro.

In Philadelphia, 2960 permits have been taken out since the first of the year, involving estimated costs of $11,812,350. A great number of the permits are for small houses and bungalows in Queensboro.

February permits in St. Louis were 704 in 1922 and 662 in 1923. The difference in money involved is just under $1,500,000.

Just under $1,500,000.

At all building lines, permits were 4050 for the first two months this year and 3190 last year.

BUSINESS SEEN IN TRAFFIC FIGURES

Unprecedented Rush in the Movement of Freight Is Reported.

By LINCOLN QUARBERG, United Press Staff Correspondent.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 15.—Railroad expansion, greatest barometer of prosperity, is under way on a large scale. Traffic demands, however, have passed the mere crest of normalcy and is actually approaching a new high wave of prosperity, representative executives of leading railroads in conference here today agreed.

The nation's arteries of commerce are first to feel the pulse of a rising tide of prosperity and the present unprecedented demand for fast freight movements emphasizes that condition, according to rail officials here discussing terminal facilities.

"The country never looked more prosperous than it does today," declared J. M. Kurn, St. Louis, president of the St. Louis and San Francisco railroad.

SOUTHWEST LINES.

"The Frisco lines are adding more new equipment today than at any previous time in the history of their development. Fifty additional locomotives and 2500 freight cars are just now reaching the tracks to assist movement of new business."

"This is merely the beginning of a vast program of expansion as we anticipate a continued demand for more haulage. We are also building double tracks wherever necessary to facilitate increased freight handling. There is no doubt that we are entering an era of real record prosperity."

UNION PACIFIC.

Greater industrial activity in all lines and excellent crop prospects were observed by C. R. Gray, Omaha, president of the Union Pacific.

"From all indications along the lines of the Union Pacific system, 1923 will be a very prosperous year in all lines of industry," stated Gray. "Prospects appear to be excellent for good crops of all kinds, and there is increased activity in all commercial and trade lines."

"In some districts there is already a shortage of labor, which ordinarily accompanies active business conditions."

TONNAGE OUTLOOK.

Nearly $20,000,000 in new equipment is being added to the existing stock of the Union Pacific lines to keep pace with and assist in the progress of the territory it serves, according to Gray. The fresh outlay includes 185 new locomotives, 2500 automobile cars and 2000 boxcars.

"We have also constructed approximately sixty miles of second track," the rail chief declared, "and have just authorized 54 miles additional."

"We are now engaged in the construction of five new lines into territories not heretofore served by rail."

"I do not look for a general tonnage considerably in excess of 1922."
